

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Teaching and Learning Technology Conference March 12-13, 2015

Educational Technology at Missouri University of Science and Technology (Missouri S&T) would like to invite you to submit a presentation proposal for the Teaching and Learning Technology Conference, scheduled for March 12-13, 2015.

THEME: Building Expectations

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Robbie Melton, Ph.D. – Associate Vice Chancellor of Mobilization Emerging Technology; Tennessee Board of Regents (www.TBRmobile.org)

The Emergence of Mobile and Smart Devices: Is Your Device Smarter than You?

This presentation will highlight the latest innovations in education technology including smart phones, tablets, wearables, smart gadgets/tools and the impact on teaching, learning, and workforce development. Educators will participate as product reviewers in determining the value and possible opportunities of emerging technologies in increasing engagement, creativity, retention, and student outcomes.

Dr. Robbie Melton serves as the Associate Vice Chancellor for Mobilization-Emerging Technologies for the Tennessee Board of Regents. Her tributes include the 2013 Apple Distinguished Educator, 2012 Top Fifty Technology Innovation Educator from the Center for Digital Education and Converge, 2012 WCET WOW Education Technology Award, 2011 IMS Global Learning Leadership, and the 2010 MERLOT Educational Leadership Higher Education System Level. Dr. Melton is known as the first “Appologist”, due to her study of mobile apps and for her creation of Appapedia.org a Mobile App and Smart Gadgets Educational Resource Center aligned to BYOD and subject areas from PreK-Ph.D.

We are looking for presentations that demonstrate how innovations in technology and teaching have had a positive impact on building expectations between students and instructors.

Many faculty and teaching professionals have developed creative approaches to the process of teaching and learning utilizing educational technology effectively that have worked to enhance their programs. Here is a great opportunity to share your experiences and achievements! Please submit all proposals by Friday, November 21, 2014 to edtech@mst.edu. Decisions regarding acceptance will be made by Friday, December 12, 2014, with notification following soon after. If you do not receive a notification by Christmas, 2014, then please feel free to contact us to see if you have been accepted or not.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The conference will take place in Butler-Carlton Hall on the Missouri S&T campus, consisting of concurrent sessions. Pick the session that best fits your topic of presentation. We are seeking proposals from faculty and teaching professionals who have utilized educational technology and would like to share those experiences with colleagues.

EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM MINI-GRANTS

The Center for Educational Research and Teaching Innovation (CERTI) and the Vice Provost for Academic Affairs at Missouri S&T supported several mini-grants towards educational research projects.

The recipients of the mini-grants will be showcasing their research work on Friday, March 13 as poster sessions in the Butler-Carlton Hall Atrium.

Instructors interested in contributing such a presentation can indicate their preference on the next page under the Friday time slots.
